IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Contributions are not tax deductible for Federal Income Tax purposes. Contributions from corporations, joint stock companies, labor organizations, Indian tribes, casino interest holders, casino supplier licensee interest holders, and foreign nationals without permanent residency status (“green cards”) are prohibited. Michigan election law (MCL 169.252) allows individuals to make a contribution of up to $2,100. The maximum allowable political action committee contribution under state law is $21,000. These limitations are applicable to political action committees organized under Michigan law; additional limitations apply to out-of-state political action committees. Michigan law requires candidate committees to report the name, home address, business address (principal place of business), occupation and employer for each individual whose aggregate contributions exceed $100 in a calendar year.
